

Lloyd's List Intelligence

MODERN SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING STATEMENT

This statement applies to Maritime Insights & Intelligence Limited trading as Lloyd's List Intelligence and its Group companies.

Introduction

This Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement is a response to Section 54(1), Part 6 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and relates to actions and activities for the financial year ending 31 December 2024. This Statement applies to Maritime Insights & Intelligence Limited and all the group companies that are part of the Lloyd's List Intelligence group of companies (together, "LLI Group").

We are committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking violations in our own operations, our products and as well as in our supply chain. We have zero-tolerance towards slavery and require our supply chain to comply with our standards.

Organisational structure

LLI Group provides transparent and actionable maritime data empowering 60,000 professionals around the globe to make confident decisions that drive the safe, efficient and lawful movement of trade by sea. We operate through our online platforms and have offices in UK, US, Singapore, Shanghai, Tokyo and Dubai. We offer a comprehensive range of services, from vessel tracking and maritime risk analysis to market intelligence. For more information about us, please visit our website: Lloyd's List Intelligence \(lloydslistintelligence.com\).

Due diligence

Due diligence is undertaken on our key suppliers to ensure that we only engage with reputable suppliers, and the relevant members of staff are required to undertake due diligence during the supplier selection and onboarding process. Any concerns raised by our employees are handled by our legal and compliance department.

Risk and compliance

The majority of our supply chain is based in the UK, US and in lower risk industries, such as internet software and services. We do not act as a producer, manufacturer or retailer of physical goods and have no supply chains in relation to such activities. We have therefore assessed that our exposure to modern slavery and human trafficking risk is low.

Irrespective of the low risk we expect all of our suppliers to meet our code of conduct as a condition of doing business with us, which is available on our website here:

<https://www.lloydslistintelligence.com/supplier-code-of-conduct>.

This statement was approved by our board of directors on 10 July 2025. We provide a whistleblowing service both internally and externally so that any suspected or actual issues can be reported and managed via an electronic system. We complete an annual review of this statement by considering any changes to geographical, industry or geo-political risks and the nature of our business or engagements.

Michael Dell

Chief Executive Officer

Date: 10 July 2025